1. On May 6, 2025, agents from the Oswego County Border Patrol Station received a tip that several illegal aliens were present at a location in Baldwinsville, New York.
2. On May 7, 2025, Border Patrol Agents went to the location in Baldwinsville to conduct surveillance. A short time later, a yellow van departed the location. Agents ran the license plate and learned that the van was registered to an individual named Rubio De Jesus ANTONIO-PEREZ.
3. Agents conducted records checks and confirmed that, on or about May 25, 2005, ANTONIO-PEREZ was found to be in the United States illegally and ordered deported from the United States back to his home county of Guatemala. On or about June 10, 2005, ANTONIO-PEREZ was actually deported via flight out of Harlingen, Texas.
4. Border Patrol agents then approached ANTONIO-PEREZ at a store in the Northern District of New York. ANTONIO-PEREZ stated that he was from Guatemala and had no permission to be in the United States.
5. At the Oswego Station, records checks revealed that ANTONIO-PEREZ was a Guatemalan citizen with no legal right to be in the United States.
6. ANTONIO-PEREZ has never applied for or received permission from the Attorney General or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security to reenter the United States since his removal on or about June 10, 2005.
